Scenes of Prosperity Are Common in Western Canada

The thousands of U. S. farmers who have accepted Canada's generous offer to settle on homesteads or buy farm land in her provinces have been well repaid by bountiful crops of wheat and other grains.

Where you can buy good farm land at $15 to $30 per acre—get $2 a bushel for wheat and raise 20 to 45 bushels to the acre you are bound to make money—that's what you can do in Western Canada.

In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta you can get a HOMESTEAD OF 160 ACRES FREE and other land at very low prices.

During many years Canadian wheat fields have averaged 20 bushels to the acre—many yields as high as 45 bushels to the acre. Wonderful crops also of Oats, Barley, and Flax. Mixed Farming is as profitable an industry as grain raising. Good schools, churches, markets convenient, climate excellent. GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

Has been used for all ailments that are caused by a disordered stomach and inactive liver, such as sick headache, constipation, sour stomach, nervous indigestion, fermentation of food, palpitation of the heart caused by gases in the stomach. August Flower is a gentle laxative, regulates digestion both in stomach and intestines, cleans and sweetens the stomach and alimentary canal, stimulates the liver to secrete the bile and impurities from the blood. Sold in all civilized countries. Give it a trial.—Adv.

He finally managed to get the words from between his teeth.
"Will you marry me, Ethel?" he stammered.
She had just met somebody she liked better, and trying to let him down easy, she began: "I thought you knew better—"
He choked back the lump of bitterness when he realized the position which she was attempting to assume: "Oh, sure I do, but they have all turned me down," he replied.

"Home Grown" Drugs.

War conditions have cut off our supply of digitals, and we are obliged to turn to our own resources for the drug. Tinctures made from the wild species—foxglove—common in Washington and Oregon, compare favorably with those made from the imported article.

"No," replied Senator Sorghum; "that's a proposition concerning which I fear compulsion, not temptation."

Petty quarrels prolong a big war.

Building-up for the Spring Attack at the Front is a good deal like putting the body in condition for an invasion of the germs of grip, pneumonia or "Spring fever" here at home.

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "pimples" or pale skin and white lips. The reason for this is that during the wintertime, shut up within doors, eating too much meat and too little green vegetables, one heaps fuel into the system which is not burned up and the clinkers remain to poison the system—a clogging up of the circulation—with inactive liver and kidneys. Time to put your house in order.

For an invigorating tonic which will clarify the blood, put new life in the body, sparkle to the eyes, and a wholesome skin, nothing does so well as a glyceric herb extract made from Golden Seal root, Blood and Stone root, Oregon grape root and Wild Cherry bark. This can be had in convenient, ready-to-use tablet form at all drug stores, sixty cents, and has been sold for the past fifty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By reason of the nerves feeding on the blood, when the blood is pure the nerves feel the effect, and neuralgia or other nerve pains disappear because such pain is the cry of the starved nerves for food. When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain Dr. Pierce's Anuric from your druggist. In tablets, sixty cents.

Waiting for His Son

By REV. W. W. KETCHUM
Director of Practical Work Course,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—How ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God; and to wait for his son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead.—1 Thes. 1:9-10.

Here are indicated the four steps in the experience of the Christians at Thessalonica to whom Paul wrote the epistle. First they turned to God. That is the first step of every truly converted person.

Turned From Idols. Secondly, "they turned from idols." That is the second step in the experience of every true Christian. The idols are not necessarily those made of wood or stone, but anything upon which the affections have been set. The order here is worthy of noting. It is not from idols to God, but to God from idols.

Expecting Jesus. Evidently from their attitude, these early Christians believed that Jesus was to return from heaven. The background of their belief was the fact that God had raised his Son, even Jesus from the dead. To them the resurrection meant more than the continued existence of the personality of Jesus after his death; it meant his bodily resurrection, and coupled with this was their belief in his bodily ascension into heaven. It is not difficult to see how with such a faith, it was easy for them to believe in the return to this earth of their risen and ascended Lord.

Were they in their faith mistaken? There is only one place for us to go to find out and that is to the Bible. Those who have taken the pains to count, tell us that there are in the New Testament alone, 318 references to the second coming of Christ. This shows the large place that this subject holds in these Scriptures, not to say anything about the reference to it in the Old Testament.

Not Death.

But are we not to understand by these references to the second coming of Christ, the death of the believer? Many have so taught, but that such teaching is incorrect is evident, if we take the passages in which these references occur and substitute the word death for Christ, as for example, in our text, which would then read, "to wait for death from heaven, even death whom he raised from the dead." This is so absurd that we see at once that by the second coming of Christ is not meant the death of the believer.

But does it not mean the coming of the Holy Spirit? This teaching is far more plausible, for as some one has said, and his saying is true in a sense, "the Holy Spirit is Christ's other self." Yet it is evident that we must not confuse the Lord Jesus Christ with the Holy Spirit. Jesus himself is careful in making the distinction and speaks of the Holy Spirit as "another comforter whom I will send unto you, even the Spirit of truth." Clearly by this statement he does not mean himself any more than when he speaks of his own coming he means the Holy Spirit. Manifestly only by the most severe straining of the Scriptures could the second coming of Christ be interpreted to mean the coming of the Holy Spirit. Try the same test used to prove that by the second coming of Christ death is not meant and substitute for the word or words referring to the Holy Spirit, word or words referring to Christ and the absurdity is just as apparent. As for example, in the passage quoted above; it is impossible, as you will see, to make this substitution and have any sense whatever left. Try it, and you will be convinced that by the second coming of Christ is not meant the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Not Destruction of Jerusalem.

But may it not mean the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus in A. D. 70? By no means, for in the Revelation, chapter 22, verse 20, is the last promise of our risen Lord given long after the destruction of Jerusalem to John, the aged, on the island of Patmos: "Surely, I come quickly." And in response, the old apostle lifts his voice and cries, "Amen, even so, come Lord Jesus." This makes it very evident that by the second coming of Christ is not meant the destruction of Jerusalem.

Well, what is meant?

Just precisely what the Scriptures teach; that Jesus Christ, the risen, ascended, glorified son of man is to return a second time to this earth. He himself so taught by direct word and by parable and so taught his disciples, and so in expectation of his return they waited.

To try to make the second coming of Christ mean anything else than the literal personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ to this earth is to twist and pervert the Scriptures from their plain and simple meaning. "This same Jesus," said the two men in white apparel at his ascension, "which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

"Amen. Even so, come Lord Jesus."

WHY CHART LACKED DETAIL

Wife Found It Simply Impossible to Put Down All the Remarks Hubby Had Made.

A physician needed a nurse's medical chart, but had none at hand. The man's wife was nursing him, so he drew lines on a sheet of paper to represent a chart. He instructed the wife how to fill it out and left.

Next day the physician called, looked at the chart and was puzzled to find so many remarks registered, far removed from things medical—remarks most irrelevant, in fact. He asked an explanation from the wife—and he got it! Wife mentioned the physician to follow her into the adjoining room, whispering to him that she did not wish husband to hear the apology she must make for him.

"You see, doctor, I couldn't put down all the remarks he made, even if you did want to know them. I'm awfully sorry—but—you—see—he used so many swear words about you, doctor, because you wanted to 'know every word a man said.'"

Gets Big Wolf.

J. W. Fountain, a rancher of the McKenzie Valley, living near Waterville, Ore., recently brought to Eugene the pelt of a huge black wolf trapped by him.

He caught it in two traps, set close to each other, and the animal had both broken and would have escaped soon had Mr. Fountain not arrived when he did. There are several of these animals in that vicinity, and the ranchers have been losing cattle and sheep as a result of their depredations.

This wolf was one of the largest ever seen in this county, measuring over eight feet from tip to tip.

Contrariness.

"Speaking of the kaiser's contrary or arbitrary attitude in this peace talk," says a well known legislator, "reminds me of the Kansas farmer who was elected to the state legislature a few years ago. The farmer was called to the chair during a session to act as speaker pro tem. A motion was made to lay a certain resolution on the table. The speaker put the motion like this:

"All those who want the resolution to lay on the table say aye! All those who want to be contrary say no!"

CO-OPERATIVE FARMING IN MAN POWER NECESSARY
TO WIN THE BATTLE FOR LIBERTY

The Food Controllers of the United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat are available to be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rests the burden of supply.

Every Available Tillable Acre Must Contribute; Every Available Farmer and Farm Hand Must Assist

Western Canada has an enormous acreage to be seeded, but man power is short, and an appeal to the United States allies is for more men for seeding operation.

Canada's Wheat Production Last Year was 225,000,000 Bushels; the Demand From Canada Alone for 1918 is 400,000,000 Bushels

To secure this she must have assistance. She has the land but needs the men. The Government of the United States wants every man who can effectively help, to do farm work this year. It wants the land in the United States developed first of course; but it also wants to help Canada. Whenever we find a man we can spare to Canada's fields after ours are supplied, we want to direct him there.

Apply to our Employment Service, and we will tell you where you can best serve the combined interests.

Western Canada's help will be required not later than May 5th. Wages to competent help, $50.00 a month and up, board and lodging.

Those who respond to this appeal will get a warm welcome, good wages, good board and find comfortable homes. They will get a rate of one cent a mile from Canadian boundary points to destination and return.
